

*Nancy Camp presents:
Tune up for horses/Tune up for Riders*

Two information-packed days of information and hands-on exercises directed toward helping your horse and you attain harmony

*Join us for either day or both !
Limit of 10 participants per day
Plenty of individual attention*

Day One - Bodywork for your horse - May 31, 2008

Nancy will present different modalities of body work and instruct participants in High Touch® Jin Shin - a simple and powerful energy healing art that can be applied safely to your horse to stress, help with injuries, or just keep your horse in the best form possible.

The morning will be classroom and demonstration

The afternoon will offer hands-on instruction. You may bring a horse or use one provided.

Day Two - Bodywork for You - June 1, 2008

Nancy will introduce EquiMotion, a Feldenkrais Integrated Riding workshop, which is a system of body awareness for riders. Find habitual patterns that prevent the easy, natural ride you desire and become a more effective rider.

The morning will be classroom and indoor exercises

The afternoon will offer lessons on horseback. You may bring a gentle, quiet horse or use one provided.

Location: Oasis, Idaho (between Boise and Mountain Home
